Outline Description	Fortified Dwellings
Property Description	A fortified, symmetrical two storey dwelling locally known as l-Armerija. This building was used as the residence of the village Capitano and for the storage of weapons for the local militia. The ground floor level is buttressed by sloping masonry and is characterised by a centrally placed arched doorway above which is a round 'oculus' window set between the corbels supporting the open balcony. The ground floor is pierced by two slit windows on the left hand side of the doorway. The paino nobile is characterised by a high ceiling and a heavy corbelled open balcony flanked on either side by a vertical window with Melitan moulded head and sill. At roof level are three pairs of corbels which may have supported drop boxes.
